

Pastor/Church Network

Objective: Equipping and engaging Christians with a Biblical worldview and providing effective ministry resources to pastors and churches.

Minnesota Family Institute will provide:

- Access to the network resources via the MFC website.
- Christian worldview training resources, including Minnesota Family Institute's own biblical Worldview Program and Focus on the Family's "The Truth Project™".
- Regional and statewide conferences and training sessions on social issues and how Christians can have a Godly influence in the public arena. Providing opportunities for pastors and lay people to discuss biblical solutions to family needs and encourage pastors.
- Point churches to effective ministries dealing with issues affecting families.
- Offer regional Training sessions on Christian citizenship
- Subscriptions to bi-monthly Pro-Family News.
- Regular e-mail updates and e-mail action alerts.
- Resource guides with biblical perspective on a range of critical social issues.
- Downloadable information resources for use in churches on family issues, such as bulletin inserts, issue briefings and talking points.
- Invaluable information related to legal issues on church involvement in the public square.
- Provide Continuing Legal Education for attorneys on relevant legal topics, from a Christian worldview.
- Day on the Hill seminars to receive training on grassroots citizenship and meet with representatives at the capitol.

Pastors and churches will do the following:

- Join with the Minnesota Family Council as a prayer partner.
- Provide training opportunities so Christians can be equipped with a biblical worldview is.
- Inform congregations about family issues in the public square consistent with legal constraints for doing so.
- Encourage contact of political leadership at all levels on family issues.
- Work with other churches to become proactive Christian citizens.
- Provide effective family ministry activities to share with the network.
- Consider financially supporting the Minnesota Family Institute's work with churches.
